Award-Winning Documentary Shunned Screening Coming to the AT&T Center

by Aurora Anne

LOS ANGELES –The release of the Vanity Fair cover of Caitlyn Jenner sparked a media frenzy where Jenner was acclaimed as brave and an inspiration to those struggling with their identity. Many people are unfamiliar about the Transgender community and the struggles they have to be seen as equals in society.

Shunned is an award-winning documentary that follows the lives of Transgender women in the Philippines. This film gives audience's insight on the challenges they have faced and their journey for empowerment.

The critically acclaimed documentary has won numerous awards including "Best Documentary" in the Long Island International Film Expo (New York) and "Best International Feature Film Documentary" in Laughlin International Film Festival (Nevada).

On Saturday, June 27 at the AT&T Center in Los Angeles, Shunned will be screening followed by a Q&A session led by the producer/director, Janice Villarosa, and the Director of Photography, Mark Celestino. Also in attendance is composer Jeffrey R. Gund and musician S.O.U.L.-O.

The pre-show will include performances from Los Angeles based duo Korbee who are known for their EP Great Escape.

Trangender issues are hot topics with a new season of Orange is the New Black premiering on Netflix that features Laverne Cox, and a new show called Becoming Us on ABC Family that deals with two parents in the process of transitioning into women.

Shunned will give viewers a chance to learn more about what it takes to be a Transgender woman and how they continue to go after their dreams. Some of the women in the documentary pursue acting, modeling, and compete in a pageant.

Shunned's upcoming screening can help inform those who may not fully understand the trials and tribulations that come with being a Transgender woman. The documentary serves as voice to those who are silenced by society.

The Shunned screening is a part of New Film Makers Los

Los Angeles being held at the AT&T Center, 1139 S. Hill St., Los Angeles on June 27 at 7:15 pm. Parking will be at 1133 S. Olive Street.
